About the Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick

The Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick on Long Island is an organization comprised of Sons of Erin and/or their descendants, who are business or professional people on Long Island.

We are interested in economic development of the homeland, as well as Long Island, and promotion of the rich culture of our ancestors.

Our ends are also philanthropic and charitable, devoted to the betterment of our less fortunate brethren, both here and in Ireland.

The membership meets four times each year in social surroundings and engages in such other activities as sponsored by the Board of Governors.

We encourage Irish American business, professional, labor and public leaders living or working on Long Island to seek membership in the Friendly Sons.

For membership information or for a membership application, please contact the Secretariat Office:
